

Innovative Teaching Pedagogy-SAR

Data visualization – Hands on project

Faculty Name: Dr. L Sudershan Reddy

Course Title: Business Research methods and Statistics

Year and Semester: 2021 Semester I

Game: Processing the raw data into useful information through charts and graphs

Teams: Each team consists of 5 students. All must participate.

Overview: This is a project based activity as a part of the course Business Research methods and Statistics which helps in making the learner group assume the defined roles, understand the case and execute in a time frame. This is part of the internal evaluation process of the course.

Activity: Each group consists of five students. Each student will be allotted a role such as Data visualiser, Data analyst, MIS Executive, Research associate, Statistician. Each group will be provided by a case to analyses, interpret and present it to the Jury.