

Workshop on GST Spreading its Wings

CMS Business School organized a one-day workshop on the fundamental topic of GST on January 18, 2018. The keynote speaker for the event was Bhavya Parvathi K, a renowned accountant.

Ms. Parvathi elaborated on how GST has arrived in India and why it will be a game-changer for the future ahead. She used interactive visual aids and simulation software to make the students practice GST calculation. She also used videos and web pages to compare and contrast the pre and post GST economy in Europe after GST implementation.

The trainer broke down technical concepts and explained all the technical aspects of tax collection and data privacy.
