

BANGALORE MIRROR

JUNE 10, 2007 48 PAGES INVITATION PRICE Rs. 1 ONLY ON SUNDAY

CMS Fest brings out best in students

Bangalore Mirror Bureau
 bmfeedback@gmail.com
TWEETS @BangaloreMirror

The CMS Festival, an amalgamation of all the fests conducted by Jain University-CMS and running for almost a month, celebrates the best in theatre, media, culture and management programmes.

The festival includes Abhinaya, theatre fest; Threshold, which explores the world management; Melange, a national level Media fest; Precipice, an international event challenging both performance and business acume; and cultural fest Lasya, which bridges professional and aes-

Celebrating the best in theatre, media, culture and management thetic acumen in a highly challenging event.

This year saw a new high at Lasya held at NIMHANS convention center, Bangalore on March 2. The fest showcased the creative talent of the top colleges Bengaluru in dance, music, theater, quiz, personality, literature and entertainment.

The dance event was judged by Bollywood actor Sharman Joshi, who spent time interacting with the performers and students.

The rich performances were topped by a scintillating concert by the band Faridkot, who have been part of the legendary Coke Studio.

Abhinaya focused on a training workshop culminating in a performance. Melange drew top colleges of media and management in challenging competitions across various media disciplines. Threshold showcased management acumen across multiple platforms, including business quiz, finances, HR, marketing and best manager.