Christ defeat Jain for CPL crown

Bimal's unbeaten 47 and Nihal's handy 46 helped Christ University defeat Jain University by six wickets in the final to win the College Premier League Twenty20 cricket tournament in Bengaluru on Friday. Batting first, Jain rode on Rohit Gowda's unbeaten 51 to score 132 for six in 20 overs. Surya was the pick of the Christ bowlers with an impressive four-wicket haul (4-10). In reply, Christ chased down the total with two overs to spare. In the third-place playoff, St Joseph's College of Commerce scripted a 30-run win over Surana College.

Brief scores: Final: Jain University: 132/6 in 20 overs (Rohith Gowda 51 n.o.; Surya 4-10) lost to Christ University: 133/4 in 18 overs (Biman 47 n.o., Nihal 46). Third-place-play off: St Joseph's College of Commerce: 151/7 in 20 overs (Rishab 37, Laagan 33) bt Surana College: 122 in 18.5 overs (Dheeraj 38; Abhishek 3-17).
